LEADING WITH TECHNOLOGY

My Retirement Outlook Demo:

<http://www.ingretirementplans.com/mrodemoCHC>

This unique retirement calculator helps participants better prepare to close the retirement income gap by combining an integrated retirement and paycheck analysis with an instant gap statement that highlights the gap between what participants are currently saving and what may be needed to meet their retirement objectives.

www.INGCompareMe.com

By leveraging the power of “peer comparison”, this tool makes it possible for participants to see where they stand in relation to others on financial matters.

www.INGYourNumber.com

The Your Number experience encourages employees to think about a crucial number they may not know – the total amount of money they need to save by the time they retire. Then, we help them focus on their goal through customized communications and behavior-changing tools to help educate, guide and motivate employees to take full advantage of plan benefits.

The ING Institute for Retirement Research (IIRR) is your single source for news, information, insights and more! This site provides thought leadership that helps explore and define the new dynamics of retirement plans to help keep you informed on industry trends.

For more information about the technology ING provides, contact your financial professional or your local ING representative.
